ALL QUIET AT HOMESTEAD

The Strikers Yield to the State Militia.

TROOPS CALLED OUT AT COUER D'ALENE.

Big Fire in San Francisco—Loss $100,000.

Special to the APPEAL

The Rioters Quit.

Pittsburg, July 11.—The troubles at Carnegie's works are considered over. Gov. Patterson has called out the State troops, and they will march to the works and place the Carnegie superintendents in possession. The leaders of the strikers have given up all idea of resistance, and say that it is useless to any longer attempt to fight. They can easily dispose of all the men Pinkerton can send there, but do not feel their ability to cope with the State's militia.

Miners at Warfare.

Wallua, Idaho, July 11.—Between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning an engagement took place between the union and non-union miners at the Frisco and Gem mines. Five men were killed and about a dozen wounded. The fight was with Winchester's and revolvers during which a terrible explosion took place, caused by non-Union men blowing up the Frisco mill, after which they raised a flag of truce, and about fifty men were taken under guard to the Union headquarters. Near Wallace a mob is in possession of the R. R. tracks, destroying property and stopping trains. The mob is determined to wipe out all hoisting works where non-Union men are employed. They demand $3.50 a day, and the trouble was caused by importing men from Wisconsin at $3.

TROOPS ORDERED OUT.

Boise City, Idaho, July 11.—Gov. Willey has ordered Company A of the National Guard to report at 8 A. M. and hold themselves in readiness to proceed to the Couer d'Alene troubles. It is thought an effective State force can not be sent there, and United States Marshal Pinkham has laid the matter before Attorney General Miller at Washington.

A Famous Suit Decided.

San Francisco, July 11.—Judge Hawley, in the United States Circuit Court this morning, rendered a long decision in the famous case of Lizzie Ralston vs. F. W. Sharon and F. G. Fewlands, trustees of the estate of William Sharon, deceased. This is the case in which the complainant asked for an accounting, and the suit involved about $5,000,000. The suit was decided in favor of defendants.

Train Robbers Located.

Oakland, July 11.—There are now in jail here H. J. Glover and his son. The police believe that the Berkeley train robbers were secreted in his house and afterwards fled to Los Gatos. It is rumored that Glover has made a full confession, but the authorities refuse any information regarding it. The robbers are believed to be in Los Gatos, and officers have gone down.

A Big Fire at the Bay.

San Francisco, Cal., July 11.—A fire tonight destroyed the entire block bordered by 15th, 16th, Howard and Shotwell, streets. A dozen stores and a score of dwellings were wiped out. Fire originated in a Chinese laundry. The loss is estimated at $100,000, no one was injured.

Burns all Right.

City of Mexico, July 11.—The conspiracy case against Daniel M. Burns of California, has been dismissed for want of evidence.

Learning the Ropes.

One of the young Indians, whom John Mack took to San Francisco, to play with the Dr. Carver combination was out for a walk a few days ago in some of the alleys in San Francisco with Capt. Pete of the Washoe tribe when he was enticed into a dive by two of the soiled doves who immediately stripped him of his cash, amounting to $7 or $8, also his clothing. He was turned loose next morning.

These simple minded aborigines are rapidly learning the ways of civilization.

Fresh fruit of all kinds at Tennant's.

THE COUNTY PRINTING.

The Commissioners Refuse to Recede.

Yesterday Gen. R. M. Clarke as Attorney for the APPEAL office appeared before the Board of County Commissioners and explained to them sections of the law relating to contracts.

It provides that all contracts which in the aggregate, amount to $500 or over shall be advertised 30 days in a newspaper and then let to the lowest bidder. The General held that the minutes of the meeting showed that the various newspapers had been called on to put in bids for the "printing and advertising" the "and" being grammatically conjunctive which enabled one bid to cover the whole.

He held that the segregating of the contract into two parts in order to favor anyone or bring the sum of each respectively under $500 was a palpable evasion of the law and a violation of the official oath.

The bids never having been called for as the law directed, all contracts under them were null and void and could not be enforced.

The Commissioners were but creatures of the law and must obey it.

Messrs. Martin and Bray maintained their original position and refused to recede.

In the discussion it leaked out that the Board originally agreed to only ask the Tribune and News to compete but finally allowed the APPEAL to come in to merely go through the formality of bidding.

"ALL THE SAME INJUN."

Zach Taylor Pawns His Pants at Poker.

On Sunday last a number of Carson sports were playing poker at Livingston's, when Zachariah Taylor got into a lot of desperate hard luck. He seemed unable to get a hand, and his pile dwindled until it was out of sight.

While in this melancholy state of mind he suddenly rose, and without even apologizing to the company, pulled off his er-pants—that's what he did—and laying them down offered them against five dollars. The offer was accepted by a Mason Valley rancher, but not until the players had measured the er-pants to see how the fit was.

He played a few hands and lost his er-pants. He said he would walk the streets in his er-er-drawers before he would squeal, and sat there for several hours in a partly er-undressed state, the butt of jocose remarks from his companions.

He finally sent a boy to his room for more clothes, and was thus able to attend church in the evening in a most presentable manner.

This has not been done in this State since Indian Jim the Piute and game man of his tribe soaked his clothes in a poker game and went home er-stripped to the buff. New York Police Gazette please copy.

Up-Hill Work.

E. C. VanDuser, the Nevada Land Agent, is in the city. He is now going about the State forming Republican clubs. He is candid enough to acknowledge that the new silver movement in this State makes his task a hard one. He says:

"Unless Harrison signs the Silver Bill I do not expect to see this State go Republican. The silver party now has a majority over both the other parties in Nevada."

"The people in the Western part of the State seem unable to realize how solidly the silver men are united in the Eastern part of Nevada. It is practically unanimous. If Harrison signs the Silver Bill the State will surely go Republican."

A Close Call.

The Belmont Courier gives the following particulars of the cave in the Brooklyn mine, Grantsville, mention of which has hitherto been made. Ira Riley and J. McDonald are now here. "The old workings of the mine were full of water, mud and tailings and kept pouring in on the unfortunates, who found themselves up to their necks in mud and water, and only kept alive by following up the cave till met by their rescuers. Aid was sent for to Lone and as soon as possible M. Merten had all of the available men in the district on their way to aid the rescuers. When reached the poor fellows were nearly exhausted, but, fortunately, were uninjured. They resumed work in a couple of days."

Fred Wilder has got a nice artesian well 100 ft deep in the northern part of town.

The Unfinished Story.

Some weeks ago W. C. Morrow wrote the first part of a story for the Examiner and a prize of $50 was offered for the best ending and $25 for the second.

Joseph Goodman formerly editor of the Enterprise won the first prize, and a man whose signature the Committee could not read won the second.

There were 538 manuscripts submitted.

Goodman has a rare faculty for story writing and fairly won the honors.

The Whist Clubs Outing.

The Whist Club went to the Lake on Sunday and took a spin on the Meteor. On the return trip the waves rolled so high that several experienced a regular sea sickness, just as if they had been off Cony Island in a chop sea with the wind sou' by sou' west on the larboard quarter and the helm hard down on the starboard tack. Several threw up (their hands) and all were glad to land.

MARRIED.

In this city, July 10, 1892, at the family home, by Rev. Eather Sheridan, Richard Galligan, of Virginia City and Miss Mamie E. Egan, of Carson.

The bride is an acknowledged favorite among her acquaintances and everybody wishes the pair lots of good luck. The APPEAL acknowledges the usual refreshments.

The Place to Go.

"No use talking," said a Carson Valley granger, "when my wife wants a new bonnet I have to drive her down to Carson to see Mrs. Knowles. She won't stand nothing less than that, and I find it pays. If you have to put on style that's the place to go."
